ABOUT US: FOOD PROCESSING SKILLS CANADA

Food Processing Skills Canada (FPSC) formerly known as the Food Processing Human Resources Council (FPHRC) is Canada's innovative solution to assist food and beverage manufacturers with the "skills and learning" side of their business. From understanding the people who make up this great industry, to the development of industry based training and competency standards, our goal is to have the most skilled and diverse workforce in the world!

We Are Committed to the Success of the Industry. Our vision is to "Educate, cultivate and empower an exceptionally skilled workforce for the food and beverage processing industry."

Our wide variety of projects and materials provide national support for the industry to address human resources issues, as well as ensure Canadian processors are equipped with affordable learning tools, standards, and resources to face the future confidently. To this day, we stand as a top influencer and resource for the industry.

Communicating with food processors, every program is a direct result of responding to industry needs and requests. All training materials are reviewed and validated by food processing industry stakeholders, prior to being made available.

Food Processing Skills Canada relies on the patronage of its industry members to provide support, input and endorsement of its programs and services.

Member companies receive:

- priority, no-cost participant placement in workshop evaluations;
- an opportunity to assist with the establishment of national industry training programs;
- regular updates on industry developments and FPSC initiatives through FPSC newsletters and regional network
- special member discounts on FPSC products and services; and
- a major voice regarding the future agenda of the FPSC, through its Board of Directors.
